

YOUR MONEY MATTERS!

Whether you're in school, near retirement or somewhere in between, your money matters! Consumers make decisions about earning, saving and spending daily. That's why it's important to understand how to successfully manage personal finances and plan for the future.

WHAT'S OKMM?

Oklahoma Money Matters (OKMM) is a personal finance education program that empowers Oklahomans to make positive financial choices.

An initiative of the Oklahoma College Assistance Program, an operating division of the Oklahoma State Regents for Higher Education, OKMM offers a variety of services to educate students, adults and families about basic money management, saving, consumer credit, student loan repayment and financial aid.

WHO DOES OKMM SERVE?

- Higher Education Campuses
- Students
- Parents
- K-12 Educators
- Community Organizations
- Businesses and Employers

Partner Feedback

OKMM has been a vital asset to the Choctaw Nation College Freshman Year Initiative program. The guidance that they provide through financial literacy workshops is beneficial to our students. Students stay engaged. OKMM content is exactly what our students need. Students need to learn the impacts of student loans, credit card management and debt, and budgeting. I wish I would have had this program available to me during my college years.

Jaime Irwin, Director - College FYI, Choctaw Nation of Oklahoma
